Respondents

APPLICATION FOR ENFORCEMENT

TAKE NOTICE

TAKE NOTICE that the Claimant, Alkiviades Andrew David, appearing in person, applies to this Honourable Court for enforcement relief pursuant to the Civil Procedure Rules and the Court's inherent jurisdiction.

GROUND OF APPLICATION

1. These proceedings were duly commenced by Claim Form filed on 17 April 2025 and amended by Amended Statement of Claim filed on 24 September 2025, both properly before this Honourable Court.
2. Certain Respondents were duly served and/or placed on actual notice of the proceedings.
3. Notwithstanding such service or notice, those Respondents have failed to acknowledge service, file any response or defence, appear before the Court, or otherwise engage with the jurisdiction.
4. The continued failure to respond constitutes persistent non-compliance with the Court's process and an abuse of process.
5. This Honourable Court possesses inherent jurisdiction, together with powers under the Civil Procedure Rules, to compel obedience to its process where parties deliberately place themselves in default.

RELIEF SOUGHT

- a. The defaulting Respondents be declared to be in continued non-compliance with the Court's process;
- b. The defaulting Respondents be ordered to attend before the Court;

- c. In the alternative, an Unless Order be issued requiring compliance within a period fixed by the Court, failing which enforcement measures may issue without further application;
- d. Upon continued refusal, such enforcement orders, including bench warrants, as the Court considers appropriate be issued;
- e. Such further or alternative relief as the Court considers just be granted.
